

SEASONS OF LOVE

Five hundred twenty-five thousand, six hundred minutes
Five hundred twenty-five thousand moments so dear
Five hundred twenty-five thousand, six hundred minutes
How do you measure, measure a year?

In daylights, in sunsets
In midnights, in cups of coffee
In inches, in miles
In laughter, in strife
In five hundred twenty-five thousand, six hundred minutes
How do you measure a year in the life? 2M

How about love?
Measure in love?
Seasons of love

Five hundred twenty-five thousand, six hundred minutes
Five hundred twenty-five thousand journeys to plan
Five hundred twenty-five thousand, six hundred minutes
How do you measure the life of a woman or a man?

It's time now to sing out - Though the story never ends
Let's celebrate - Remember a year in the life of friends

Remember the love?
Measure in love?
Seasons of love

Five hundred twenty-five thousand, six hundred minutes (Seasons of love)
Five hundred twenty-five thousand moments so dear (Moments so dear)
Five hundred twenty-five thousand, six hundred minutes (Seasons of love)
How do you measure, measure a year?

The above lyrics are from the song "Seasons Of Love". It was written by Jonathan Larson for the 1996 musical "Rent". It makes you think, 'what have I done with five hundred twenty-five thousand, six hundred minutes in the past year'? I'll be 75 next month - therefore, I have had 39,420,000 minutes in my life. I'd like to share a few of those minutes with you.

I've had many kinds of moments. Some were happy, some were sad - but the ones that stand out are the moments filled with love. I'd like to share a few of those.

I remember when I was in the delivery room as a student nurse and heard the first cry of a newborn baby - I thought it was the most beautiful sound. When I worked in Physical Therapy, I worked with a 6 year old boy who had a traumatic brain injury when he was struck by a car on his bike. The injury caused blindness and he was very unstable when he moved around. I had him on the stationary bike, standing next to him for balance, and I started describing a trip across America while he was riding. The look on his face filled my heart. I remember taking care of an older woman who had a stroke. She just looked at you - never showed any emotion. I walked into her room on Christmas and someone had brought her a music box. I turned it on for her and when she heard 'Silent Night', she broke into a smile and love radiated from her face. I remember my grandmother when she went to Disneyland in California. She had the look of a child on her face - she was in awe of everything around her. They say Disney is for kids but I enjoyed watching my grandmother more than I did watching the young children. There was an older man who had dementia at the nursing home where my mother was. He was from England, never said much, but watched everything that was going on. When I found out he had been in the British Royal Navy, I bought a book with photos of ships and went through it with him. His eyes lit up and love was all over his face. Some of my favorite moments were family vacations in Ludington, Michigan. We always walked out on the pier to the light house every morning and every evening and watched the ferry boats come and go. We'd be on the beach or in the lake most of the day - it's amazing when you're young you don't mind fifty degree water. We watched the sun set every evening and mom would always make a sizzling sound when it appeared to disappear into the water. My favorite memories as a teenager was the time spent in youth fellowship at the church I attended. Mom and Dad were the youth leaders and we did all sorts of things. We'd present a talent show at least once a year, sing fun songs and religious songs at each gathering, took a bus to Kentucky to spend a weekend at Redbird Mission, and were always in charge of Easter Sunrise Service.

We do many things to entertain ourselves. When you reach your seventies, and you look back over your life, it's not the things you've done to entertain yourself that you remember - it is the relationships you've formed and the time you spend with family and friends. It's the times you feel love.

I Corinthians 13:4-7 tells us, "⁴ Love is patient and kind. Love is not jealous or boastful or proud ⁵ or rude. It does not demand its own way. It is not irritable, and it keeps no record of being wronged. ⁶ It does not rejoice about injustice but rejoices whenever the truth wins out. ⁷ Love never gives up, never loses faith, is always hopeful, and endures through every circumstance." (New Living Translation)

Five hundred twenty-five thousand, six hundred minutes in a year. What will you do with them? Will you be a couch potato? Will you be an advocate for change? Will you call older people to check on them to make sure they are ok and ask them if they need anything? Will you work on getting a new hospital in the Dayton View? Will you be a role model for children and for youth? Will you support the vision at College Hill and be part of making it a reality? When you tell someone that you would like to help out but just don't have the time - will you think of those five hundred twenty-five thousand, six hundred minutes and decide you can find the time.

CAN SUNDAY SCHOOL BE WORSHIP

When our church was considering hiring a security guard, I'm pretty sure one of the considerations did not include what happened today at children's Sunday School. We had five children in class. Only two of them were children of regularly attending church members. At the beginning of class, we got everyone's name but did not ask with whom they came. Imagine my surprise, when I saw the security guard leaving for the day, she had two of the children with her. One was her granddaughter and the other her friend. They had been delightful to have in class, and seemed to have had a delightful time. You never know when you are asking God for one thing, exactly what other blessings will come to you; especially if you are open to seeing and receiving the unexpected. Often what is unexpected, will help you to see blessings you might have missed even about what you asked for. Because we have changing security guards, we receive not only less anxiety, but each of them seems to bring us unexpected blessings to give and receive. God has promised us abundance, and that is just what we get!! Praise God from whom all blessings flow.

On a second blessing note, I cannot help but brag about the three-person team I am on for teaching the children in kindergarten-6th grade. I am so honored and gratified to work with Sisters Diann Harris and Judy McCray. God has just equipped us with such complimentary skills, knowledge, and hearts for service, that I leave each lesson sensing God's presence and giving thanks for the experience. For me, our Sunday School class is an act of honor, glory, and praise. I pray my co-workers feel the same.

New Protocols Approved for Outdoor Worship

Session recently approved revised COVID protocols for College Hill's outdoor worship services that are tentatively scheduled to resume begin Sunday, August 14th

While the new protocols are quite similar to last summer's procedures, there are a few differences. Here is a brief summary of this year's protocols to help provide a safe and comfortable worship experience for all:

Where to worship: You are welcome to worship seated in your vehicle in the church parking lot, or you can bring your own lawn chair and sit in the designated area on the lawn. (The church will provide a metal chair if you forget to bring one). We expect the service to be broadcast on FM radio again this year for those in cars. Worshipers with children are reminded they must either control the children sitting on the lawn so they do not wander around or create a distraction, or else remain with the children in their cars.

Parking: Larger vans, trucks, and SUVs should park in the row nearest Cornell Drive or in the edge spots nearest Philadelphia Drive, allowing smaller cars to have better sight lines nearer the worship area. A few handicapped spots are available in the front row. Those parking along the fence line will back in and park facing the church building (disregarding the painted stripes).

Masks are optional everywhere except if you enter the building to use the restroom, in which case a mask is required (see an usher for a mask if you do not have your own). We recommend you use the downstairs restrooms near fellowship hall, and only if necessary use the upstairs restrooms. One person at a time may use the restroom, unless accompanying a child.

Hydration matters! We invite you to bring your own favorite beverage. Bottled water will be available from the parking lot attendant.

What you'll receive: Ushers will, in a safe way before worship, give you an announcement bulletin, prayer request form, and offering envelope; communion elements will be distributed on communion Sundays. Later in the service, ushers will come to you to give you the chance to take part in the offering.

Microphone: A sanitized microphone will be available when visitors are introduced and when spoken prayer are invited. Visitors will receive a welcome packet and be asked to fill out and return a contact information card.

Distancing: With COVID still around, please maintain appropriate distances and respect personal space as you greet and interact with other worshipers.

Questions during worship? Ask the ushers or parking lot attendant.

We look forward to joining you in Spirit-filled worship outdoors this summer!

COLLEGE HILL COMMUNITY CHURCH FLEA MARKET AUGUST 8, 2022

The Elam Public Relations ministry is pleased to report that the annual flea market, which had been not held due to the pandemic for three years, was finally held in August! The vendors were happy to be back and the community really enjoyed the event.

Through donations made by many of you, the Outreach Ministry table was able to distribute clothing, household items, and even a couple of boxes of donated food to families in need from our community at little or no cost to them. And the Deacon ministry did a beautiful job offering prayer, conversation, and information about College Hill.

But beyond the wonderful sale, all of the volunteers commented on how exciting it was to hear the happy talk and loving exchanges among the people. We thank chairpersons Linda Peters and Marlea Gaskins for their hard work to make this event a success. Also, thanks to the ever-loyal College Hill volunteers who made this community event possible. You know who you are and you are appreciated!

FROM YOUR DEACONS

“DEACON” is derived from the Greek word “DIAKONOS” meaning “SERVANT”.

College Hill Community Church currently has six members serving as Deacons. (Two people have stepped down since early June.) The ministry of a Deacons as set forth in Scripture is one of compassion, witness, and service, sharing in the redeeming love of Jesus Christ for the poor, the hungry, the sick, the lost, the friendless, the oppressed, those burdened by unjust policies or structures, or anyone in distress.

Each church member is assigned a specific Deacon. That Deacon will check in with each person on their list at least monthly to see how they are, if they have any concerns or needs and to offer prayer. Everything discussed between the church member and their Deacon will be kept confidential unless the member gives permission to share.

Those of you who have a new Deacon will be contacted by them in the near future. An updated Deacon list was e-mailed to all members on August 20th. If you did not receive one, please contact Jan Brecht at 937-572-3706 or at jsbpups@aol.com. If you are in need, going through a difficult time or would like to be placed on the church prayer list, please contact your Deacon

A DAY IN THE COUNTRY – LONGTOWN

After two years of being unable to go due to Covid, our annual trip to Longtown is scheduled for Sunday, September 25, 2022. A bus will leave the parking lot promptly at 9:30 AM. Worship service at Bethel Long Wesleyan Church begins at 11:00 AM. The cost for the bus is $15 for adults, children under 12 are free. There will be lunch, a tour of the Community and a Memorial Service. We will return to Dayton at 5 PM.

Longtown was a predominantly African American settlement in Darke County, founded in 1822. The population included many freed or runaway slaves. With the establishment of a vocational school known as the Union Literary Institute, Longtown created an opportunity for African Americans to become land-owning farmers, craftsmen, skilled workers, and professionals during a period when slavery and racism were prevalent.

Bach Society of Dayton to Perform Handel's Israel in Egypt Sunday, October 30

One of the most profound stories in Scripture is the liberation of the Hebrew people from bondage in Egypt. Come hear G. F. Handel's stirring oratorio setting of this epic journey with the Bach Society of Dayton chorus, soloists, and orchestra on Sunday, October 30, at 4:00 pm. at the Kettering Adventist Church, 3939 Stonebridge Rd., near Kettering Hospital. Appropriate COVID protocols will be observed.

The Bach Society will be under the direction of its new music director, Dr. David Crean, following the retirement of John Neely after last season. Our own Larry Hollar continues as a bass singer with the Bach Society.

To order tickets to the October concert, go to the Bach Society website at <https://bachsocietyofdayton.org/buy-tickets/oct>.

Support our College Hill Walkers

Now for the 2022 Dayton Area CROP Hunger Walk

Now is the time to sponsor our intrepid crew of College Hill Church walkers for the October 9 Dayton Area CROP Hunger Walk. As of Aug. 28, our walkers are Gladys Turner Finney, Mack Lakes, Brenda Brown, Darlene Brookshire, and Larry Hollar. It's not too late to become a walker and help raise funds for Church World Service and the Dayton Foodbank.

How can you support or become a walker?

One option is to sign up online now to make a secure donation to support a particular walker or the entire College Hill team, or sign up as a walker. Start by searching for "Dayton CROP Walk," and on the web site home page click on "Browse a full list of teams." Click on the link for the College Hill Community Church team page, and from there you can join our team as a walker and/or make an online donation with a credit card or through PayPal.

Another great way to help is by giving cash or a check made out to CWS/CROP to any one of the walkers listed above. They will gladly accept your donation. Please do NOT make checks out to College Hill Church since that slows down the process.

The 2022 CROP Hunger Walk is on Sunday, October 9, 2022, at Shiloh UCC Church, 5300 Philadelphia Drive (Main St. and Philadelphia) in Dayton, near College Hill. Walkers will begin to gather at 1:00 pm and the Grand Send-off happens at 1:30 pm. College Hill has a proud history of very generous donations to the Dayton CROP Walk each year.

If you have questions or need help navigating the Dayton CROP Walk web page, contact Larry Hollar, our church's walk coordinator, at 937-643-3168.

Social Justice

I was writing a newsletter article for our Social Justice committee. There are so many injustices and crisis to address. When I realized that a problem we have within our church is also a social issue - The lack of Volunteers. Please don't moan and roll your eyes. I've spoken out on this and we all know it is a problem. If you feel you belong to this church, if you believe in our church and you know the work of College Hill Community Church, please give your time. One Sunday ushering would make a tremendous difference. Volunteer to sit with James Allen during service or take him to lunch after church. Fill our children's outdoor library. Prepare communion. If you can climb the stairs, want to learn, and most of all to see Ivy Young and Jessica Jenkins take a well deserved break from weekly audio visual duties. Talk to Darlene Brookshire, Dan Peters, Judy McCray, Sherman Gray, Paula Ewers, Ivy Young. They are at church multiple days a week. They need help with the many jobs they are doing. Yes, MANY HANDS will make light work for us all. Do the work of the church. Words without action? You know the bible quote. This is an important social justice issue too. Volunteer. Even in the age of covid, especially in the age of covid. The work of the church must go on daily. Please give a little of your time to help.

THE MISSION STATEMENT FOR COLLEGE HILL COMMUNITY CHURCH

We are a family of Christians who intentionally include all God's children as we live in faithful obedience to God's command to love one another and seek justice, using Jesus as our example. We strive to serve God's people and connect to each other personally, spiritually and socially.
