

THE EASTER EGG

Years ago I read the following story. I'd like to share it with you.

Jeremy was born with a twisted body, a slow mind and a chronic, terminal illness that had been slowly killing him all his young life. Still, his parents had tried to give him as normal a life as possible and had sent him to St. Theresa's Elementary School. At the age of 12, Jeremy was only in second grade, seemingly unable to learn. His teacher, Doris Miller, often became exasperated with him. He would squirm in his seat, drool and make grunting noises. At other times, he spoke clearly and distinctly, as if a spot of light had penetrated the darkness of his brain. Most of the time, however, Jeremy irritated his teacher.

One day, she called his parents and asked them to come to St. Teresa's for a consultation. As the Forresters sat quietly in the empty classroom, Doris said to them, "Jeremy really belongs in a special school. It isn't fair to him to be with younger children who don't have learning problems. Why, there is a five-year gap between his age and that of the other students!" Mrs. Forrester cried softly into a tissue while her husband spoke. "Miss Miller," he said, "there is no school of that kind nearby. It would be a terrible shock for Jeremy if we had to take him out of this school. We know he really likes it here."

Doris sat for a long time after they left, staring at the snow outside the window. Its coldness seemed to seep into her soul. She wanted to sympathize with the Forresters. After all, their only child had a terminal illness. But it wasn't fair to keep him in her class. She had 18 other youngsters to teach and Jeremy was a distraction. Furthermore, he would never learn to read or write. Why waste any more time trying? As she pondered the situation, guilt washed over her. "Oh God," she said aloud, "here I am complaining when my problems are nothing compared with that poor family! Please help me to be more patient with Jeremy." From that day on, she tried hard to ignore Jeremy's noises and his blank stares. Then one day he limped to her desk, dragging his bad leg behind him. "I love you, Miss Miller," he exclaimed, loudly enough for the whole class to hear. The other children snickered, and Doris' face turned red. She stammered, "Wh-Why, that's very nice, Jeremy. Now please take your seat."

Spring came, and the children talked excitedly about the coming of Easter. Doris told them the story of Jesus, and then to emphasize the idea of new life springing forth, she gave each of the children a large plastic egg. "Now," she said to them, "I want you to take this home and bring it back tomorrow with something inside that shows new life. Do you understand?" Yes, Miss Miller!" the children responded enthusiastically - all except for Jeremy. He just listened intently, his eyes never left her face. He did not even make his usual noises. Had he understood what she had said about Jesus' death and resurrection? Did he understand the assignment? Perhaps she should call his parents and explain the project to them. That evening, Doris' kitchen sink stopped up. She called the landlord and waited an hour for him to come by and unclog it. After that, she still had to shop for groceries, iron a blouse and prepare a vocabulary test for the next day. She completely forgot about phoning Jeremy's parents.

The next morning, 19 children came to school, laughing and talking as they placed their eggs in the large wicker basket on Miss Miller's desk. After they completed their Math lesson, it was time to open the eggs. In the first egg, Doris found a flower. "Oh yes, a flower is certainly a sign of new life," she said. "When plants peek through the ground we know that spring is here." A small girl in the first row waved her arms. "That's my egg, Miss Miller," she called out. The next egg contained a plastic butterfly, which looked very real. Doris held it up. "We all know that a caterpillar changes and grows into a beautiful butterfly. Yes, that is new life, too" Little Judy smiled proudly and said, "Miss Miller, that one is mine." Next Doris found a rock with moss on it. She explained that the moss, too, showed life. Billy spoke up from the back of the classroom. "My Daddy helped me!" he beamed.

Then Doris opened the fourth egg. She gasped. The egg was empty! Surely it must be Jeremy's, she thought, and, of course, he did not understand her instructions. If only she had not forgotten to phone his parents. Because she did not want to embarrass him, she quietly set the egg aside and reached for another. Suddenly Jeremy spoke up. "Miss Miller, aren't you going to talk about my egg?" Flustered, Doris replied, "but Jeremy - your egg is empty!" He looked into her eyes and said softly, "Yes, but Jesus' tomb was empty too!" Time stopped. When she could speak again. Doris asked him, "Do you know why the tomb was empty?" "Oh yes!" Jeremy exclaimed. "Jesus was killed and put in there. Then his Father raised him up!" The recess bell rang. While the children excitedly ran out to the school yard, Doris cried. The cold inside her melted completely away.

Three months later Jeremy died. Those who paid their respects at the mortuary were surprised to see 18 eggs placed by his classmates on top of his casket - all of them empty.

But Jesus said, "Let the children come to me. Don't stop them! For the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to those who are like these children." Matthew 19:14

CLERK'S CORNER

Session Met Tuesday March 28th. This was our first meeting with our temporary Moderator Kazy Hinds who was sent to us by the COM (Committee On Ministry). As we welcomed Kazy I must say that we missed the presence of our Pastor Rev. Worthen and hope that things will return to normal soon. Please keep all involved in prayer. Also, please let me reiterate that all members are welcome to attend session meetings. However, if you have a specific topic you would like to speak on please let me know so that it may be added to the agenda.

Lent Reflection:

Lent 2023 is about to come to an end. Lent is meant to be a time of repentance. Forty days are set aside to praise and worship the Lord; to read the Bible more and pray more often. Lent provides a natural opportunity for quiet reflection. While Lent is meant to be a time of repentance, it is not a feeling of shame. Lent is an awareness that sin separates us from God and of what it cost God to be reunited with us. Lent is an opportunity to think about what Jesus really did for us. While Lent provides a time for personal reflection, community fasting can provide accountability, unity, and support. Daniel 9:3 states, "Then I turned my face to the Lord God, seeking him by prayer and pleas for mercy with fasting and sackcloth and ashes."

THEREFORE, let College Hill Community Church be a unified body and conclude this last week of Lent with prayer and fasting one for another. From April 3 through April 7. Let each person design the fast according as they are able, one meal, a certain number of hours or abstaining from certain foods or social media. Whatever will help us to focus on God. Then as a unified body, let us pray each day at 11:00 AM wherever we are set a reminder to engage in prayer The length of time is not as important as the unity in praying together.

God Bless,
Marva Gray
Clerk of Session

Greetings from the Administrative Commission

The Administrative Commission of the Presbytery of the Miami Valley would like to thank you as we have begun our listening sessions. The last listening session is scheduled for April 1. The AC recognizes the variety of gifts and leadership of the ruling elders on session, as well as their energy and passion to use these gifts for the life of the church. In our meeting with Pastor Worthen, we assured her that we were encouraged by her community engagement, the energy she brings to worship, and her undoubted commitment to pastoral care.

Like many of you, we are also concerned about the mistrust and conflict in your congregation. In our experience as teaching and ruling elders, we know that mistrust and conflict can easily distract a church from focusing on the mission and ministry of Jesus Christ.

We would like to empower the congregation by inviting you more thoroughly into a practice of shared ministry that reflects the values of Presbyterian polity and Reformed theology. This is important because our governance and theology are one of the ways we listen to God. Our listening for the will of God is done through community and relationship, and polity is a central expression of this commitment.

At the time of our recommendation, this was the reason we recommended that the Committee on Ministry appoint a new moderator to College Hill Community Church. This recommendation was not based on any correspondence that we received, but patterns we quickly identified through our own observation and minutes review. Once we can better equip the congregation and session for shared ministry, we will be able to determine when to invite Pastor Worthen back to attend congregational and session meetings.

We were looking forward to sharing this with you at your congregational meeting. The Administrative Commission is made up of people from throughout the Presbytery. Ruling elders on the commission are Donna Courtney from Sugar Creek, Bridget Hawkins from Bellefontaine (clerk), and Gene Saunders from Westminster Dayton. The teaching elders are Cynthia Holder Rich from Corinth and Lucinda Isaacs (moderator) who is currently at-large.

NEW MEMBERS AND BAPTISM

Welcome to Myra Washington and her son Anthony. Although they have been part of our church family, they both officially joined the church on March 19th. The following Sunday, Myra and Anthony became the first two people baptized in College Hill Church's new Baptismal Pool.

FROM THE ELAM PUBLIC RELATIONS MINISTRY

Happy Spring greetings from your Elam Public Relations ministry! Did you know that some of our main forms of communicating the good news about College Hill comes from this ministry? The PR ministry maintains our church website, our church Facebook page and our church newsletter. The newsletter is sent electronically in both English and Spanish every month. The website is updated regularly with current news and announcements. The church Facebook page is updated daily with news concerning not only College Hill but the Presbyterian Church, USA, in general. You can help College Hill by visiting the Facebook page and clicking "like" if you see something you enjoy, or sharing a post that you've seen that other people might like to see. This helps our information to spread in a more powerful way. The Elam PR ministry is also always looking for new members, especially those who are familiar with electronic media. And, as always, if your ministry or group is doing anything you need publicized, contact Chair Brenda Peters for assistance.

Thank you to Dan Peters, Darlene Brookshire, Paula Ewers, Sherman Gray, Mack Lakes, Kathy Lakes, Brenda Peters and Angel Drake. While this crew got a lot of great things done, there is still much more to be done. Look for further announcements concerning more cleaning at the church. All are welcome to join in!

TEEN COLUMN

Being bullied is hurtful, scary and confusing. When bullying is aggressive and physical, it can be dangerous. When it's emotional – like name calling, or cyberbullying – it's easy to feel alone. If you're being bullied or see someone being bullied, here are some things to do:

- ◆ Try to stay calm.
- ◆ Don't let hurtful words beat you down
- ◆ Be a friend - listen, support and speak up (especially if the situation is unsafe).
- ◆ Tell them to stop.
- ◆ Say nothing and walk away...if you need to, run away!
- ◆ Remember – bullies hurt others because something wrong is going on in their lives.
- ◆ Even bullies need help.
- ◆ Get off the internet! Avoid checking the internet (even though you want to).
- ◆ Delete accounts where you are bullied. Take a screen shot so that you can share it with your parents or others for evidence and support.
- ◆ Don't respond to online bullies – getting into online conversations/chats can make you feel worse.
- ◆ Brush it off with humor.
- ◆ Tell someone you trust – a friend, parent, teacher, and/or mentor.
- ◆ Avoid “problematic areas” – areas around the neighborhood or school where bullying can happen.
- ◆ Safety in numbers - keep yourself surrounded by people.
- ◆ Spend time with people who make you feel good about yourself (we like this one!).
- ◆ Don't become a bully yourself. Don't give in to anger. Don't give in to peer pressure.
- ◆ If you can, be a friend – apologize to those you've bullied and support those who are being bullied.
- ◆ Ask adults to listen. Tell them: “It's important.”
- ◆ Recognize the signs of depression - sadness, wanting to be alone, poor concentration, sleeping problems, and difficulty in school.
- ◆ If you're feeling very sad or unsafe – always, always find help (best to find a trusted adult).
- ◆ If you do not know who to talk to and you feel like you want to hurt yourself. Call the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline at 800.273.8255.

One Great Hour of Sharing

Kintsugi, the 15th-century Japanese art of repairing broken pottery by mending the broken areas with lacquer dusted or mixed with powdered gold or other precious metal, reminds us that when repaired, formerly broken things reveal new lines of character and beauty.

But what of God's world? The world God entrusted to our care? So many parts are broken, damaged by cruelty to each other, misuse of Creation or refusal to take God's commands seriously.

In Isaiah 58, the prophet reminds us, "You shall be called repairers of the breach." Repairers. And as we question the breaches that may have resulted from our own actions, we ponder how to repair them, creating something unique, beautiful and resilient. Which ones get attention first?

How can we repair a breach that may have existed for decades or one that has only recently emerged? Where can we work for repair to reveal beautiful new veins of gold?

Millions of people lack access to sustainable food sources, clean water, sanitation, education, and opportunity.

How many times do you see a report of people suffering from hunger, natural disasters, etc., and look away because it is too difficult to look at. Looking away doesn't make the problems disappear. But your help can. We can be there to advance the cause of justice, resilience and sustainability.

For over 70 years One Great Hour of Sharing has partnered to take action to share God's love through three life-saving programs.

- ♦ Presbyterian Disaster Assistance
- ♦ Presbyterian Hunger Program
- ♦ Self Development of People

One Great Hour of Sharing supports programs in over 100 countries.

When we all do a little, it adds up to a lot.

Feel their pain – share your gifts!

The One Great Hour of Sharing Offering will be taken April 2 - Palm Sunday and April 9 - Easter Sunday.

THE MISSION STATEMENT FOR COLLEGE HILL COMMUNITY CHURCH

We are a family of Christians who intentionally include all God's children as we live in faithful obedience to God's command to love one another and seek justice, using Jesus as our example. We strive to serve God's people and connect to each other personally, spiritually and socially.
